Friends of The Ferguson Library

The Book Shop is offering themed book bundles for young learners in Pre-K through Grade 5. Just five dollars for a preselected bunch of books on a single theme. It's the perfect way to supplement classroom, at-home and hybrid learning. All proceeds support the Library.

High School Students Fundraise for The Ferguson

Stamford Teen Outreach Partners (S.T.O.P.), a group of Stamford high school students who offer free tutoring/mentoring to elementary school kids, has started a fundraiser to support the Library's youth services. Visit their Go Fund Me page if you'd like to help!

Borrow a Laptop from the Library

You can now borrow a Chromebook laptop from any library location. At the Main Library, the circulating Chromebooks will also include a Wi-Fi Hot Spot. You can keep the equipment for 21 days with one renewal. They are not available for reserve. Please ask at any of our branches or call 203 351-8261 for information.

The Heart of the Community

THE NEWSLETTER OF STAMFORD'S PUBLIC LIBRARY • OCTOBER 2020

From the President's Desk

Please join me for a very special program to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the South End Branch on October 3 at 11:30 a.m., via Zoom. We're going to treat you to a visual history of the branch, messages from community leaders and a special talk from Newbery Medal author Jerry Craft (details

Fifty years ago, there was much excitement when

Mayor Julius Wilensky announced the formation of a new community center in the South End that would include a collection of books from The Ferguson Library. A federal grant of $28,898 underwrote a starter collection of books, and in its early years, an outreach librarian tended to the collection and offered programs. The branch grew and expanded over the years to become

The South End branch provides a full range of services from homework help to book discussions to popular jazz and poetry nights. From the beginning, this branch has provided services to the local community and we are happy to announce that the South End Branch will be growing again soon with additional space in the building.

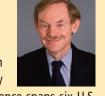

Alice Knapp, President

Passport Office Reopens at Harry Bennett Branch

The Passport Office is now open at the Harry Bennett Branch as well as the Main Library. You can make an appointment by calling 203 351-8298 or visit us on a walk-in basis. Appointments will take precedence. Main Library Passport Office: Monday – Wednesday 11 – 5; Thursday 11 -8; Friday 11 – 5; Saturday 11 – 4. Civility in U.S. Diplomacy Robert B. Zoellick October 8

Our Civility in America series resumes October 8 with Robert B. Zoellick, who will speak on U.S. diplomacy and foreign policy. Mr. Zoellick's government experience spans six U.S. presidencies. He has served as Deputy Secretary of State; U.S. Trade Representative; Deputy Chief of Staff at the White House; and President of the World Bank. He is the author of America in the World: A History of U. S. Diplomacy and Foreign Policy. The program will be presented via Zoom on October 8 at 5 p.m. Register at fergusonlibrary.org.

Library Welcomes New Trustees

The Ferguson Library Board of Trustees has elected Anderson R. Livingston as its new chair for 2020 – 2021. He succeeds outgoing chair Dudley N. Williams, Jr. Mr. Livingston has been a member of the Library's Board of Trustees since 2016 and most recently served as Vice-Chair. Anderson is Managing Partner at the private equity firm, Armondale Ventures. He also held several leadership positions at American Express. Besides his involvement with the Library, he also serves on the Board of Directors of the Stamford Family YMCA.

Stephanie O'Shea will serve as the board's vice-chair; Sopong Kim has been elected treasurer and Robert J. Granata continues as secretary. Tom Cassone, whose term has expired, leaves the board; Ellen Bromley and Susana Vidan join the board.

HOLIDAY HOURS

The Library will be open regular hours Columbus Day, Monday, October 12.
