

Kenny Green, CPA is a bestselling author, faith-led coach, and dynamic speaker who helps audiences align their finances with their divine purpose. His book Faith.Finance.Purpose. debuted at #3 on Amazon's Best Sellers List and teaches the powerful truth that when you believe in your calling, greatness and provision will follow.

Blending his background as a Certified Public Accountant and former Director of Sustainability at American Express, Kenny brings practical financial insight and spiritual depth to his talks. He's spoken at institutions including Wesleyan University, Penn State University, and the Police Athletic League of the Bronx, and has appeared on HBO, FOX and The Learning Channel.

Kenny's coaching programs—centered on Mindset, Mission, and Methodology—empower people to live with intention, build wealth with integrity, and walk boldly into their calling.

He and his wife, media executive Makeda Mays Green, are also creative investors in purpose-driven storytelling. Together, they are investors in the Broadway production of Buena Vista Social Club, which earned 4 Tony Award nominations in the 2025 season and co-Executive Producers of the upcoming feature film Silent Partner. They live in Stamford, Connecticut with their three dynamic children.